

INVITATION

From the BAEA-project, Becoming adult educators in the European Area.

”BECOMING ADULT EDUCATORS IN EUROPE”

Brunnsvik Folk High School in cooperation with the Department of Behavioural Sciences and Learning at Linköping University in Sweden invites you to take part in a one-day workshop dealing with research activities presented in a Synthesis research report and a Handbook including single-country reports carried out in Denmark, Estonia, Italy and Sweden concerning adult educators in Europe during 2008 – 2010. This is a project sponsored by the European Union and you will find information about the project at www.dpu.dk/baea.

This workshop will take place at Linköping University on 27 september 2010. The workshop starts at 09.30 and ends 15.00. The workshop is free of charge and includes coffee breaks and lunch. You will probably meet both researchers and practioners in this workshop.

There will be two lecturers, Per Andersson, PhD from Linköping University and Per-Ola Jansson, Headmaster at Brunnsvik Folk High School, who respectively will introduce the Synthesis report and the Handbook.

After your registration we will send you the workshop material and a closer information of how to get to the conference localities. Deadline for registration is 17 september. Register yourself to poj@brunnsvik.se.

Welcome to Linköping and a workshop with a wide scope!

Per-Ola Jansson
