Call for Participation

Get involved and be a part of it!

We cordially invite you to get involved and play an active role at this conference. We are particularly keen on proposals covering relevant, innovative and focused questions as well as answers about the general topic “mind change - social inclusion”. The combination of science and practice, researcher and practitioner includes various perspectives and reveals new approaches and ideas and introduces new prospects.

We welcome participants who share their knowledge/experience in poster-, paper- and panel-proposals.

- Category 1: Scientific contributions of students, scientists and researchers
- Category 2: Best Practice examples and innovative projects of practitioners, managers, professionals of NPOs, NGOs and other reference areas

Further information and referral to submission can be found on our website www.mindchange.org shortly.

Possible subject areas: legal and social inclusion standards in Europe, future expectations of people with disabilities, trends and innovations in social inclusion, relationships and way of living, limits and opportunities in education and occupational integration.

Proposals will be reviewed and evaluated by the Scientific Board of the Mind Change Conference.

The deadline for proposal submission is October 15th, 2011. Please find further participation details and submission guidelines on our website at: www.mindchange.org.
