One of the greatest challenges for contemporary private and public organisations is to continually develop their capabilities for innovation and sustainable development. The International Helix Conference emanates from the perspective that the organisation is not only an effective production system but, under certain conditions, also a system for promoting learning, health, gender equality and innovations.

The International Helix Conference intends to build bridges, not only between different fields but also between researchers, practitioners and policy makers

Six tracks will be running through the conference:

- Innovative Work Systems for Production, Products and Services
- Learning and Innovation at Work
- Health, Work Ability and Competence
- New Forms of Organisation – New Ways to Organise
- Entrepreneurship and Regional Development
- Managing Projects – Measuring Impacts

The International HELIX Conference is organised by HELIX VINN Excellence Centre, Linköping University together with KTH Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, and Jönköping University and in collaboration with the Swedish Governmental Agency for Innovation Systems (VINNOVA), the Swedish ESF Council, the Swedish Council for Working Life and Social Research (FAS), and the Swedish Agency for Economic and Regional Growth.

We invite you to submit an abstract and for those who so wish to extend the abstract into a full paper. Submission deadline for abstract is 15 December 2012, and full paper submission deadline (not mandatory) is 15 April.
