

Joint final conference
Bruxelles, 5 December 2013
of
Skillsbank and YOMTOOL

Salle Henri Janne, local 2G52, Boulevard du Jardin Botanique 20-22, Bruxelles

Version 2013-11-15

Welcome
0900-0930	Arrival, registration and welcome coffee
0930-0945	Welcome by Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences. Kristin Merete Bugge, Senior advisor, International Affairs
	Opening by the Ministry of Education
Towards Skillsbank
0945-1010	"Rethinking Education" with a perspective on qualifications and career guidance. Koen Nomden, Policy Officer, European Commission, Directorate General Education and Culture
1010-1030	ESCO - Bridging communication gaps between education/training and the labour market. Massimiliano Molinari, ESCO IT project manager, European Commission, Directorate General Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion
1030-1100	European processes towards validation of prior learning in an ECVET perspective. Jens Bjørnåvold, Senior expert of CEDEFOP
1100-1130	Coffee break
Skillsbank in operation
1130-1200	YOMTOOL and Skillsbank in a Europe 2020 perspective: Youth on the Move and New Skills for New Jobs. Rolf Aslaksrud Kristiansen, EUROMASC – European Masters of Skilled Crafts, and Tron Inglar, Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences
1200-1300	Skillsbank works. System presentation in an end-user perspective. Leif Erik Eriksson, NTI-MMM, and Otman Daoud, E-motive Experiences from testing. Round table discussion
1300-1400	Skillsbank on the Menu : Walking lunch – with demo options

Apprentices and mobility with YOMTOOL
1400-1420	The European Alliance for Apprenticeships and the role of VET mobility in youth employment. Sigve Soldal Bjorstad, Policy Officer, European Commission, Directorate General Education and Culture
1420-1520	YOMTOOL on the Move. System presentation with mobility life cycle examples. Leif Erik Eriksson, NTI-MMM, and Otman Daoud, E-motive
	User experiences from YOMTOOL test phase
1520-1550	Coffee break with demo options
ECVET tools and principles in a broader context
1550-1610	A European sector perspective on qualifications, mobility and equal opportunities with better recognition tools. Cristina Tilling, Political secretary, European Transport Workers' Federation.
1610-1630	ECVET based mobility and recognition as a booster for personal growth, professional development and employment. Didier Gelibert, Chef de service, ANFA – Association Nationale pour la Formation Automobile, France (tbc)
1630-1650	2020 ahead! Bridging pathways of education and training to achieve mobility and permeability through ECVET : Skillsbank and YOMTOOL contributions. Siegfried Willems, Director, National Agency for Leonardo da Vinci/CINOP, Netherlands
Conclusions, perspectives and partnerships
1650-1700	Wrap-up and conclusion of the conference. Olav Eikeland, Professor, Vice-Dean, Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences
1700-1900	Informal farewell session and partnering towards Erasmus+

We regret that travel cost and accommodation will be at the participants' own expense

For further information, please contact Ms Line Klaeth at Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences (line.klaeth@hioa.no) or Ms Rannveig van Iterson at NTI-MMM (rannveig@ntim.eu)

Registration

For registration of participation, please fill in the form and return to rannveig@ntim.eu, keeping line.klaeth@hioa.no in copy.

As there is a restriction on the number of seats available, we'll explicitly inform you when your registration is confirmed.

